

Anthem: *Panis Angelicus
Text: St. Thomas Aquinas

Panis angelicus
Fit panis hominum;
Dat panis coelicus
Figuris terminum;
O res mirabilis!
Manducat dominum
Pauper, pauper,
Servus et humilis.

[translation]
May the Bread of Angels
Become bread for mankind;
The Bread of Heaven puts
All foreshadowings to an end;
Oh, thing miraculous!
The body of the Lord will nourish
the poor, the poor,
the servile, and the humble.

Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen
Text: American Spiritual

Nobody knows the trouble I've seen,
Nobody knows but Jesus.
Nobody knows the trouble I've seen,
Glory hallelujah!

Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down.
O yes, Lord.
Sometimes I'm almost to the ground.
O yes, Lord.

Nobody knows the trouble I've seen,
Nobody knows but Jesus.
Nobody knows the trouble I've seen.
Glory hallelujah!

If you get there before I do,
O yes, Lord.
Tell all my friends I'm comin', too.
Oh yes, Lord.

Nobody knows the trouble I've seen.
Nobody knows but Jesus.
Nobody knows the trouble I've seen.
Glory hallelujah! Glory hallelujah!

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Sarah Trump

What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits to me?
I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.
Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore, let us keep the feast.
O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His mercy endures forever.

WE COME TO YOUR FEAST

PRAYER OF GENERAL CONFESSION

Almighty and most merciful God, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against You in thought and word and deed, that we have not loved You with all our heart and soul, with our mind and strength, and that we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. We ask You, O God, to be forgiving to what we have been, to help us to change so that the love of goodness may ever be first in our hearts, that we may always follow Your commandments, and follow always in the steps of Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray, saying . . .

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

HYMN: We Come to Your Feast

We place upon Your table
A gleaming cloth of white;
The weaving of our stories,
The fabric of our lives;
The dreams of those before us,
The ancient hopeful cries,
The promise of our future,
Our needed and our nurture
Lie here before our eyes.

Chorus

We come to your feast,
We come to your feast,
The young and the old,
The frightened, the bold,
The greatest and the least.
We come to Your feast,
We come to your feast
With the fruit of our lands
And the work of our hands,
We come to your feast.

We gather 'round Your table
A pause within our quest,
We stand beside our neighbors,
We name the stranger "guest."
The feast is spread before us;
You bid us come and dine.
In blessing we'll uncover,
In sharing we'll discover
Your substance and Your sign.

[Chorus]

Mark 1:29-39

(NRSV)

As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sunset, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.
