

LESSON: ACTS 2:1-13

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

Our Covenant

As followers of Jesus Christ,
we commit ourselves to share in the worship and service of God,
to grow in the knowledge and expression of our faith,
to reach out with compassion to those in need,
to treat each other with love and understanding,
and to return to God a portion of God’s gifts.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP (Read responsively)

Leader: The Lord is in His Holy Temple.

People: Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

Leader: I will rejoice and be glad in the God of my salvation.

People: He gives me strength and keeps me safe all the days of my life.

HYMN SOLO

Gracious Spirit, Dwell with Me
Jill Bruss, Soloist

REDHEAD NO. 76

PRAYER OF INVOCATION (To be read aloud together)
Eternal God, our Heavenly Father, on this day of Pentecost may our hearts be glad and our spirits rejoice as we gather to worship you. We thank you for the gift of your Holy Spirit and for the Church that binds us to each other. Let your Blessings rest upon us as we worship together this morning. Hear us now as we pray together . . .

THE LORD’S PRAYER (To be read aloud together)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn Solo: Gracious Spirit, Dwell with Me
Verses 1, 2 and 4

Gracious Spirit, dwell with me,
I myself would gracious be;
and with words that help and heal
would Thy life in mine reveal,
and with actions bold and meek
would for Christ my Savior speak.

Truthful Spirit, dwell with me,
I myself would truthful be;
and with wisdom kind and clear
let Thy life in mine appear,
and with actions brotherly
speak my Lord's sincerity.

Holy Spirit, dwell with me,
I myself would holy be;
separate from sin, I would choose and cherish all things good,
and whatever I can be,
give to Him who gave me Thee!

Hymn Solo: Breathe on Me, Breath of God
Verses 1, 2 and 3

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what Thou dost love
and do what Thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
until my heart is pure,
until with Thee I will one will,
to do and to endure.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
till I am wholly Thine,
till all this earthly part of me
glows with Thy fire divine.
