

Lesson: 1 Corinthians 11:17-34

Now in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. For, to begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it. Indeed, there have to be factions among you, for only so will it become clear who among you are genuine. When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord's supper. For when the time comes to eat, each of you goes ahead with your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk. What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I commend you? In this matter I do not commend you!

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord. Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves. For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. If you are hungry, eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for your condemnation. About the other things I will give instructions when I come.

THE PRAYER OF GENERAL CONFESSION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER (unison)

Almighty and most merciful God, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against you in thought and word and deed, that we have not loved You with all our heart and soul, with our mind and strength, and that we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. We ask You, O God, to be forgiving of what we have been, to help us to change so that the love of goodness may ever be first in our hearts, that we may always follow Your Commandments, and follow always in the steps of Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray saying . . .

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Solo: Be Still and Know

Text: Steven Curtis Chapman

Be still and know that He is God.
Be still and know that He is holy.
Be still oh, restless soul of mine.
Bow before the Prince of Peace;
let the noise and clamor cease.
Be still and know that He is God.

Be still and know that He is faithful.
Consider all that He has done;
stand in awe and be amazed
and know that He will never change.

Be still.

Be still and know that He is God.
Be still and know that He is God.
Be still and know that He is God.

Be still.

Be speechless.

Be still and know that He is God.
Be still and know He is our Father.
Come rest your head upon His breast;
listen to the rhythm of
His unfailing heart of love beating for his little ones,
calling each of us to come.

Be still.

Be still.

Solo: Let Us Break Bread Together

Text: African-American Spiritual

Let us break bread together on our knees.
Let us break bread together on our knees.

Refrain:

When I fall on my knees with my face to
the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us drink wine together on our knees.
Let us drink wine together on our knees.

[Refrain]

Let us praise God together on our knees.
Let us praise God together on our knees.

[Refrain]
