Leader: For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life?.

THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER (unison)
Eternal God, Heavenly Father, we come to You now in the silence of prayer, yet shouting for joy because of Your unfailing love for us. We, Your children, have gathered together to seek Your guidance and inspiration, praying for refreshment and consolation, so that we may cheerfully face our tasks and bear the burdens of our common life. We ask that You accept our worship and praise, both silent and spoken, as we pray in Jesus’ name. . .

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

LESSON: MARK 10:46-52

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.
