

Luke 22:14-20

When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him. He said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, “Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.” Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.”

One Bread, One Body
Anthony John Andronczyk, Soloist

THE PRAYER OF GENERAL CONFESSION (read in unison)

Almighty and most merciful God, we acknowledge and confess that we have sinned against You in thought and word and deed, that we have not loved You with all our heart and soul, with all our mind and strength; and that we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. We ask You, O God, to be forgiving of what we have been, to help us change so that the love of goodness may ever be first in our hearts, that we may always follow Your commandments, and follow always in the steps of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INSTRUMENTAL RESPONSE

Children ages 3 - 5th grade are invited to come to the front for the Lord’s Prayer and then join Tonia Wallner for Sunday School. Youth grades 6-12 meet in the PF Room.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
