

Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?” And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.” But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

THE CALL TO WORSHIP		Shannon Damuth
Leader:	The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good tidings to the afflicted.
PEOPLE:	He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
Leader:	To proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor, and the day of vengeance of our God;
PEOPLE:	To comfort all who mourn; to grant to those who mourn in Zion -- to give them a garland instead of ashes;
Leader:	The oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit,
PEOPLE:	That they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.

THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION (read in unison)

Gracious God, Heavenly Father, once again we come into Your house to be strengthened and inspired for our pilgrimage. Through the stimulating of our minds, and the deepening of our devotion may we become more Christ-like. May our thoughts, words, and deeds reflect Your Will for our lives. Bless this time of worship so that we might become blessings to our world. We pray this in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER Tonia Wallner

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CARE FOR CHILDREN

A nursery for infants and toddlers is available during the 10:00 AM service.

This morning’s Chancel flowers are placed by the Santelle and Fink families in abiding remembrance and pensive celebration of the life of Carol Jean Hasley Santelle, who taught that there is much to give up in order to grow into connected, reflective, and responsible people and that we cannot love anything without being vulnerable to loss.
