

Anthem: I'll Sing
Text: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

I sing the mighty pow'r of God that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad
and built the lofty skies.

I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day.
The moon shines full at His command and all the stars obey.

I'll sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food.
He formed the creatures with His word and then pronounced them good.

Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed
where'er I turn my eye
if I survey the ground I tread or gaze up on the sky, the sky!

There's not a plant or flow'r below
but makes Thy glories known,
and clouds arise and tempests blow,
by order from Thy throne.

While all that borrows life from Thee
is ever in Thy care, and everywhere that man can be Thou God art present there.

I'll sing to the Lord while I live,
I'll sing!

Anthem: Be Thou My Vision
Text: 8th Century Irish Hymn

Be Thou my vision O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me save that Thou art,
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
walking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my wisdom and Thou my true word,
I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord.
Thou my great Father, and I Thy true son,
Thou in my dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise.
Thou mine inheritance now and always,
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
High King of heaven, my treasure Thou art.

High King of heaven, my victory won!
May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart whatever befall,
still be my vision, be Thou my vision,
O ruler of all.

Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. LESSON: MATTHEW 13:31-34, 44-52

He put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing.

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“Have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”
