

Anthem: Canticle: For All the Saints
Text: Ecclesiasticus 44, alt.
William Walsham How

Let us sing of famous ones,
and our parents that begat us,
such as did bear rule in their lifetimes
and were renowned for their power.

Leaders of the people by their counsels,
such as found out musical tunes
and recited verses in writing.
All these were honored in their generations
and were the glory of their times.

And there are some which have no memorial who are perished as though they have never been.
Their bodies are buried in peace,
but their names liveth forevermore.

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds,
from ocean's farthest coast,
through gates of pearl streams
in the countless host,
singing to Father, son and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen!

Anthem: In the Sweet By-and-by
Text: Sanford F. Bennet

There's a land that is fairer than day,
and by faith we can see it afar,
for the Father awaits over the way
to prepare us a dwelling place there.

In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore;
In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore.

We shall sing on that beautiful shore
the melodious songs of the blest,
and our spirits shall sorrow no more,
not a sigh for the blessing of rest.

In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore;
In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore.

To our bountiful Father above,
we will offer our tribute of praise,
and the blessings that hallow our days.

In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore;
In the sweet by-and-by,
we shall meet on that beautiful shore.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH of WAUWATOSA

Our Covenant

As followers of Jesus Christ, we commit ourselves to share in the worship and service of God, to grow in the knowledge and expression of our faith, to reach out with compassion to those in need, to treat each other with love and understanding, and to return to God a portion of God's gifts.

THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION (read in unison)

Almighty God, merciful Father, you have given us minds to know You, hearts to love You, and voices to praise You. Bless us as we worship You in this holy place. We come into Your presence with a sense of both awe and comfort. Grant that we may seek to know and to do Your will. May we love You with heart and mind, with soul and strength, and love our neighbors as ourselves. Let Your spirit be in us, to guide us in all our efforts. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Children ages 3 - 5th grade are invited to Sunday School. Youth grades 6 through 12 meet in the PF Room.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND RESPONSE

OFFERTORY A Flower Remembered Words and Music by John Rutter

“A flower remembered can never wither: Forever blooming as bright as day, its fragrance lingering like music softly playing, a gentle voice that’s saying ‘I’ll never fade away.’ I hear the echoes of many voices; sometimes they’re distant, sometimes so clear. Through all the sounds of life they seem to whisper, ‘Will you remember?’ . . . We will remember.”

Luke 19:1-10

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.” So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, “He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.” Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.” Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.”
