

Lesson: Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION (read in unison)

Almighty God, You are worthy of our highest worship and devotion. We ask that you awaken our hearts to praise and thanksgiving at this special time of year. We are grateful that You have brought us together as a worshipping community. We know, O Lord, that Your goodness never fails and Your love never ends, but from time to time we need to focus on Your great generosity and our unique status as Your children. Lift our thoughts beyond the every-day material things we have; and remind us that the true riches of life are of the spirit. Accept our worship in these moments of spiritual fellowship. We pray in the name of Your Son. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Special Music: I Like Thanksgiving
Text: Teresa Jennings

I like Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day.
It makes me thoughtful and so I pray,
I am so grateful for every little thing that comes my way.

I like Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day.

All join hands and make Thanksgiving
a happy day.
All join hands, let gratitude lead the way.

I like Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day.
It makes me thoughtful and so I pray,
I am so grateful for every little thing
that comes my way.

I like Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day.
I like Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day.

Anthem: Surely the Lord is in This Place
Text: Genesis 28:16-17; Psalm 84:4;
Psalm 126: 3

Surely the Lord is in this place.
This is none other but the house of God,
and this is the gate of heav'n.

Surely the Lord is in this place.
Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house;
they will be still praising Thee.

The Lord hath done great things for us;
whereof we are glad.

Anthem: Now I Can See the Light!
Text: Reverend Ken Henry

O let my praise roll upward,
O let my feet stand firm,
for I can't keep from shoutin' God's praises through all the earth.

Yes, I was so down, so weighted down
by sorrow.

My heart was hard and heavy,
I couldn't see the light,
walked right through the flame,
the sea waves crashed around me.

My heart was hard and heavy,
I couldn't see the light,
then I got down on my knees and I
bowed my head in pray'r,
and I asked God for mercy for I couldn't
see the light;
and God showered me with love,
and God showered me with mercy,
and God listened to my pleading, and
brought me to the light!

Praise God for I can breathe again!
Praise God for I can see again!
Praise God for I can hear again!
Now I can see the light!

O let my praise roll upward,
O let my feet stand firm,
for I can't keep from shoutin'
God's praises though all the earth.

Let us sing Hosanna.
Sing Hosanna in excelsis!
Now I can see the light!
Amen, sing amen!

Hymn: Come, Ye Thankful People, Come
Text: Henry Alford (1810-1871)

Come, ye thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home;
all is safely gathered in,
ere the winter storms begin.
God our Maker doth provide
for our wants to be supplied;
come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

All the blessings of the field,
all the stores the gardens yield;
all the fruits in full supply,
ripened 'neath the summer sky,
all that spring with bounteous hand
scatters o'er the smiling land,
all that liberal autumn pours
from her rich o'er-flowing stores.

These to Thee, our God, we owe,
source whence all our blessings flow,
and for these our souls shall raise
grateful vows and solemn praise.
Come, then, thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home:
come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home. Amen.

Hymn: Now Thank We All Our God
Text: Martin Rinckart (1586-1878)

Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom His world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us,
and keep us in His grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
the Father now be given,
the Son and Him who reigns,
with them in highest heaven,
the one eternal God,
whom heaven and earth adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.
