LUKE'S GOSPEL & WEALTH

This Sunday, September 22, Pastor Barry will preach on Jesus' difficult parable about the manager who was fired for squandering his master's property — but was praised by the master when he forgave the debtors! What is this story about? How does it, if at all, affect our relationship with God? Why did Jesus tell such a story? The Message will be presented at both the 8 am Taize and 10 AM Worship services. You may wish to read Luke 15:1-2 and 16:1-17 before you come to worship.

Then continue the conversation . . .

All are welcome to "Luke's Gospel and Wealth," a presentation and discussion of Jesus' teachings led by Pastor Barry from 10:10 am until 12 noon in the 2nd Floor Parlor. Topics include what Jesus said about possessions and the stories he told. How can we weave Jesus' teaching with modern economic life, the Down Jones Index, planning for the future, the lilies of the field, and the birds of the air. Who are blessed, who are not . . . and why? How can we, if at all, bring the Good News to the poor?
